Band: CHORD 5

Titel: "Raise our voice"

We're in a cage and we want to be free
but we're surrounded by fire trees.
We don't have a clue what happens outside cause we were always told what's wrong or right.
The whole society holds back all the rage.
Everybody knows, their life's just a fake.

So we try to raise our voice,
we finally shout out.
We're children and we start talking now.
So we try to raise our voice,
we finally shout out.
We're children and we start talking now.

They're holding us back but we're still who we are even though you caused our scars.
The lions are sitting on their thrones
and we're still standing here on our own.
It's time to stand up for ourselves.
In this minute we need to excel.

So we try to raise our voice,
we finally shout out.
We're children and we start talking now.
So we try to raise our voice,
we finally shout out.
We're children and we start talking now.

We have a right to live our life,
we have a right to feel free,
we have a right to live our life how we want it to be.
But starving, fighting, hoping all day,
this is our actual way.

So we try to raise our voice,
we finally shout out.

We're children and we start talking now.

So we try to raise our voice,

we finally shout out.

We're children and we start talking now.

We finally, we finally shout out.
